Dear Mr. McCone:

STATINTL

The students and staff of the U. S. Army Intelligence School express their appreciation for the period of instruction concerning economic data which was presented by [REDACTED] at Fort Holabird, on 10 February 1965, to Class 65-SO-3 of the Senior Foreign Officer Intelligence Course.

STATINTL

[REDACTED] lecture was a valuable experience for this group of students. Their interest in and enthusiasm for the presentation was most evident in their questions and requests for copies of information contained in the briefing aids. The talk contributed substantially to an understanding by the students of the significance of economic intelligence and of the methods employed to produce it.

STATINTL

Thank you for providing the services of [REDACTED] for this presentation. We shall look forward to further appearances by him as a guest speaker.

Sincerely,

PETER N. DERZIS
Colonel, AIS
Assistant Commandant
